

Bobbie Takashima Seminar

Salt Lake City, Utah

May 4-8th, 2010 / Tuesday thru Saturday

*Prep day on Monday at Glenna's studio (5145 South 2100 East) for those who want to get together to prepare the back ground and get the patterns on all five sides.

We will be painting Bobbie's darling
Wizard of Oz Notions Box

The tuition with the surface, pattern and pictures is $425.00

* Depending on the total number of people who attend this fee may also include lunches each day.

The instructions will be available for painting in either
Traditions Acrylics or Jo Sonja Acrylics

With 5 full painting days we should get a lot of this finished at the seminar!

*We will have monitors up as we have for seminars in the past so everyone will be insured a good seat.

*We also keep the building open in the evenings for those who want to paint.

The seminar will be at the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers building in Midvale across the street and slightly west of Gardiner Village
1100 West 7800 South, Salt Lake City, Utah

The supply list and prep instructions will be emailed out the end of March and Jan Pecharich will contact you shortly before the seminar to pick up your table.

To register please send your $100.00 non-refundable deposit to:
(Final payment is due April 1st)
